WRC Schedule #2

Please use this as a guide for how to spend your last weeks in the WRC. On June 3rd, I will give you a grade for having your completed hours in the lab, and I will also collect this packet all of your attached documentation for a grade. Please label everything carefully.

Check the boxes of the work you have done in the lab, and attach documentation. For example, if you do a DLA, attach the signed DLA. If you do an explication or annotation, Xerox it and attach it here. If you work with a professor, have the professor sign this paper.

Week #9 Close Reading of a Longer Work

- ☐ Review literary elements and annotate them in one of these longer works
 - ☐ Work with a tutor on Essay #3. Bring your comments from the first two essays, and try to address those issues in your current essay.

Week #10 Literary Analysis of a Longer Work

- ☐ Work with a professor on your transitions and paper structure for Essay #3. Is this the best order for your ideas, and do you emphasize that order with your transitions?
 - ☐ Work with a tutor on individual grammar issues.

Week #11, #12, and #13 Research for Presentations and Vietnam Essay

- ☐ Work with a reference librarian to find the required library sources.
 - ☐ Write your works cited page and have it checked by a professor in the WRC
 - ☐ Work with a professor on your Vietnam Essay. You're your Introduction lead up to your thesis, and do your topic sentences relate to your thesis?
 - ☐ Work with a tutor on individual grammar issues.

Week #14 Revision for Portfolio

- ☐ Work with a professor on the revision of one of your essays or your cover letter.
 - ☐ Work with a tutor on individual grammar issues

Week #15 Revision for Portfolio

Make sure you have this completed by June 3rd
