Dear Dean Ramser:

I am pleased to inform you that you have been selected by the Charter College of Education (CCOE) to receive the 2015 Lena & Dominic Longo scholarship. This scholarship was awarded to you because of your current accomplishments and potential for future academic and professional achievements. The Charter College of Education Scholarship Committee reviewed many scholarship applications and was pleased to recommend you for this particular scholarship this year. At this time, you may view your full scholarship award amount on your GET account.

Please accept my sincere congratulations on receiving this award. I wish you all of the best in your personal, academic and career success. The CCOE's faculty, staff, and generous donors hope that this scholarship award will help you reach your educational goals and also serve as a source of financial support to you while you complete your program.

The majority of the CCOE's scholarship programs are endowed by the college's faculty and alumni. Thanks to their generous commitment, the CCOE will be able to continue awarding scholarships to deserving students, like yourself, each year. Today, you are a receiver of their gifts. In the future, we hope to see you also become a giver of these gifts as a proud alumnus of the Charter College of Education at California State University, Los Angeles.

Upon receipt of this award letter, we would also like to encourage you to send a thank you letter to the Lena & Dominic Longo scholarship donor to express what this award means to you. This scholarship endowment was established to support students who have demonstrated a commitment to completing their education, and thus, it is very meaningful for our scholarship donors to understand how this award has contributed to shaping your educational goals and making a positive difference in your life. Please kindly send this thank you letter to our CCOE Dean's Office and we will gladly forward the letter to the scholarship donor:
